ELECTION OF OFFICERS
At the May 2015 meeting the following slate of officers were presented to the Board for action at the July meeting:
Dwight D. Stone, Chair
Haywood D. Cochrane, Vice Chair
Charles G. Duckett, Secretary
Dwayne L. Pinkney, Assistant Secretary

A motion was made by Trustee Brown to approve these officers; it was seconded by Trustee Curtis, and passed. Following the vote, the gavel was passed from Trustee Caudill to newly appointed Chair Stone.

Chair Stone called upon Secretary Duckett to read a resolution of appreciation for Trustee Caudill.

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION
W. LOWRY CAUDILL
THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL
July 23, 2015

WHEREAS, Lowry Caudill has served as Chair of the Board of Trustees from July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2015, providing strong leadership, focused management, and exceptional counsel to all during that period; and,

WHEREAS, Lowry Caudill led the University’s transition from Chancellor Holden Thorp to Chancellor Carol Folt, and helped the University and Board navigate a period of complex institutional challenges; and,

WHEREAS, Lowry Caudill articulated clear goals for the Board at the outset of his tenure and successfully accomplished them; these objectives were to strengthen the University’s relationships with external constituencies, guide a sustainable approach to Enterprise Risk Management, build on and communicate innovation and entrepreneurship activities, and above all, ensure a smooth and effective transition for Chancellor Folt and the new members of her senior leadership team; and,

WHEREAS, Lowry Caudill, through his interest in innovation and research support helped lay the foundation for Carolina’s reaching the highest echelons of research institutions nationwide, which occurred during his tenure as Chair; and

WHEREAS, Lowry Caudill determined that this Board of Trustees would take on the complex, controversial topic of race and place at Carolina, guiding the Board to seek a comprehensive approach; and,
WHEREAS, Lowry Caudill accomplished these efforts with humility, steadfastness, and teamwork;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill deeply thanks Chair Lowry Caudill and expresses its great appreciation for his vision, leadership and devoted service to this Board, the University, and the state of North Carolina.

A motion was made by Chair Stone to adopt the resolution; it was duly seconded and passed.

Chair Stone read the following statement regarding the State Government Ethics Act:
“As Chair of the Board of Trustees, it is my responsibility to remind all members of the Board of their duty under the State Government Ethics Act to avoid conflicts of interest and appearances of conflict of interest as required by this Act. Each member has received the agenda and related information for this Board of Trustees’ meeting. If any Board member knows of any conflict of interest or appearance of conflict with respect to any matter coming before the Board of Trustees at this meeting, the conflict or appearance of conflict should be identified at this time.”

CONSENT AGENDA

CHAIR’S REMARKS

Chair Stone began his remarks by welcoming the new trustees: Houston Summers, Ed McMahan, Bill Keyes, Julia Sprunt Grumbles, Hari Nath and Allie Ray McCullen.

Welcome Ann Maxwell who will be the new Board of Governors liaison.

Remarked that he is honored and humbled to be elected as Chair of the Board. He believes that we have the best faculty, staff, students and leaders here at Carolina who will help move the University forward.

Thanked Trustee Caudill for his service as Chair for the past two years. He led the University through challenging times with skill and dignity. Chair Stone read a quote from Abraham Lincoln, “The best leaders never stop learning. They possess a special capacity to be taught by those they come in contact with. In essence this ongoing accumulation of knowledge helps to prepare the organization for change”. He believes Trustee Caudill did this every day in leading our past Board.

Chair Stone presented the four goals for the year:
- Support Chancellor Folt and her senior leaders as they formulate and implement a new strategic plan for UNC
- Tell our story – Carolina improves the lives of people across North Carolina, our nation and our world
- Accelerate, measure and communicate the growth and economic impact of our innovation and entrepreneurship initiatives
- Help Carolina become more efficient and effective in key operational areas particularly Finance, Administration, Teaching and Research

Stated that this will be a working Board. This Board will build relationships, foster and nurture them, and work to make them grow. That work will be implemented with all whom this Board comes in contact with, especially the citizens of the State of North Carolina.

Chair Stone continued saying that the Board will work with all to make the University better, more efficient, and more productive. They will also work with the BOG and the Legislature to realize that they are key constituency groups with whom the University needs clear communication about our mission.

Chair Stone said that he expects this Board to be adaptable to the challenges affecting Universities and academic institutions across the country.

In closing, Chair Stone challenged the Board to deal with all issues before them with strong conviction and integrity.

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT’S REMARKS

Student Body President Houston Summers began his remarks by saying how thankful he is to serve UNC as Student Body President.
• Thanked the Trustees for their hard work over the last several months, and welcomed the new Trustees to the Board.
• Discussed some things already being planned for the school year including:
  o Alcohol awareness events
  o Philanthropic opportunities
  o And other important discussions regarding race and place
• Trustee Summers closed by saying he looks forward to students returning to campus and the work they will accomplish this year. He will provide a more detailed update at the September meeting.

CHANCELLOR’S REMARKS

• Chancellor Folt began her remarks by welcoming the new members of the Board, and expressing excitement to work with them in the coming years.
• Chancellor Folt stated how important the summer is for those working at the University. This is a time for administrators to plan and prepare new ideas for the coming year.
• Thanked Trustee Caudill for his steadfast leadership over the last two years as chair. She also indicated that she is excited to work with Chair Stone.
• Remarked on a strategic planning announcement to take place on University Day, October 12, 2015.
• Yesterday, the Board heard from two important groups – the Ethics and Integrity and Policy and Procedure Audit Working Groups. These two groups reinforce the University’s commitment to transparency, efficiency, and integrity.
• Chancellor Folt then introduced the new Dean of the UNC School of Law Martin Brinkley.
• Acknowledged the passing of former Chancellor William Aycock.
• Chancellor Folt then spoke on the Charleston shootings and how these tragedies bring communities together. She also spoke on the families of Deah, Yusor and Rasan.
• Remarked there will be discussions all year around race and place at UNC, as well as on education curation.
• Mentioned some other accomplishments that have taken place this summer:
  o UNC-Chapel Hill launched a new Coastal Resilience Center of Excellence (CRC) that was made possible through a 5-year, $20M grant from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Science and Technology Directorate.
    ▪ This initiative will include collaboration with more than a dozen partner universities.
  o Received results Lineberger five-year NCI review.
    ▪ They received the descriptor of “Exceptional to Outstanding”.
  o Yesterday, we heard that this year was the best in University history for fundraising. There will be more to come with that in the near future.
  o This year was the 10th consecutive record year for applications at just under 32,000 received.
    ▪ Chancellor Folt stated that she looks forward to working with Student Body President Houston Summers’ cabinet.
    ▪ There were 4,082 student enrolled from 97 counties in North Carolina, 45 states, and 20 countries.
    ▪ Chancellor Folt thanked Steve Farmer and Shirley Ort for their outstanding work in Admissions and Scholarships and Student Aid, respectively.
• Chancellor Folt announced that she will be attending a rare and historic physics conference, coordinated by UNC Professor Laura Mersini-Houghton, next month.
• During this conference, she will be introducing Stephen Hawking who will be giving a public lecture on black holes.
• Mentioned that we are on track to meet the NCAA’s deadline for the Notice of Allegations on August 18th.
• Recently, Chancellor Folt and Provost Dean visited with Belle Wheelan to discuss the SACSCOC letter and to reiterate our full cooperation in providing any information the commission needs during its review. She then emphasized the commitment to doing whatever it takes to get this right.
• Chancellor Folt ended by introducing the presenters.

NC TRACS INSTITUTE

Chancellor Carol Folt introduced John Buss, Director and Co-Principal Investigator of the North Carolina Translational and Clinical Sciences Institute (NC TrACS). NC TrACS was formed to house the UNC Clinical and Translational Science Award (CTSA) funded by the NIH in 2008 and renewed in 2013. The NIH’s current five-year award is nearly $55M; matched 1:1 by institutional resources. There are approximately 300 faculty and staff who are in some way supported by NC TraCS. In 2013, NC TraCS became partners with RTI International and NC A&T University. NC TraCS also has strong collaborations with Duke University, NC State University, the State of North Carolina and the CTSA Consortium. Dr. Buse then introduced Angela B. Smith, MD, MS who is a KL2 Scholar through NC TraCS to speak on how NC TraCS has helped to advance her career. Dr. Smith’s research focuses on patient-centered outcomes, risk stratification, and quality of care for invasive bladder cancer. Following their presentation, Dr. Buse and Dr. Smith entertained questions from the Board. This presentation can be found on bot.unc.edu and on file in the Office of the Assistant Secretary.

CAROLINA HEALTH INFORMATICS PROGRAM
Chancellor Folt introduced Javed Mostafa, Director of the Carolina Health Informatics Program (CHIP). CHIP is an interdisciplinary research and training program that fulfills Carolina’s commitment to improving human health through health informatics research, data sharing, development and education. There are currently eight academic units on campus collaborating to support and run CHIP including the Schools of Nursing, Dentistry, Medicine, Information and Library Science; the Eshelman School of Pharmacy; Gillings School of Global Public Health; the Health Sciences Library; and Department of Computer Science. Dr. Mostafa gave a timeline on the progress of CHIP since its inception in 2009. Since then they have begun offering graduate certificates in clinical, nursing, and public health informatics as well as a Masters in Professional Science (MPS) in Biomedical and Health Informatics that was launches in fall of 2014. Dr. Mostafa indicated that there are plans for a PhD in Health Informatics for launch in 2016. He then introduced Dr. Arlene Chung, Dr. Stacie Dusetzina, and Dr. Tim Camney who all discussed how CHIP has helped them to advance their research. The Board also heard from three students: Andrew Novokhatny, Vincent Carrasco, and Fei Yu who are currently enrolled in Carolina Health Informatics programs. Following the presentation, the presenters entertained questions from the Board. This presentation can be found on bot.unc.edu and on file in the Office of the Assistant Secretary.
