

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT HOUSTON SUMMERS' PREPARED REMARKS

UNC Board of Trustees Meeting

January 28, 2016

- Student Body President Houston Summers began his remarks by thanking each of the trustees for their ongoing work
- Trustee Summers stated that the work of people in this room will help contribute to the inclusiveness of all
- Trustee Summers remarked that he and his team will continue to forge ahead on all issues experienced by our students including mental health, race and place, educational delivery, and gender. Also, that they were dedicated to sharing the voices of all students.
- He and his team are dedicated to sharing voices of all students
- Trustee Summers shared information on recent events including:
 - Faith Fest
 - Earth Day
 - Involvement with committees on race and inclusion
 - Events planned with the NC Children's Hospital
 - Habitat for Humanity
 - Faculty/Staff events
 - Speaker Ban series
 - And voter registration campaigns