Student Stories: Gail Markland

Growing up, Gail Markland never considered herself an academic. Now with help from Part-time Classroom Studies program, she graduates with bachelor's degree in 2015. MORE »
A Mission of Expanding Access
250 Distance Education Courses

BUSI 586: Personal Finance

Lesson 4: Credit Management

Lesson 4 includes the following sections:

- Video Lectures
- Required Reading and Homework Assignment
- Live Session and Weekly Assignment

Video Lectures

Begin the lesson by watching the videos below.

Part I

Types of Credit

Consumer Credit
- Credit cards
- Auto loans
- Store credit cards

Mortgage Credit
- Primary
- Secondary
- Primary+
- Home equity loans
- Home equity lines
Faculty Profiles

Anne Hastings

Jean DeSaix

Lee Pedersen

Chip Snively

Dan Reichart
UNC CORE is a program designed to accelerate the degree path for active duty service members, veterans, and National Guard and Reserve members.
With UNC Core, active duty service members, veterans, and National Guard and Reserve members can complete general education college courses from a distance on a flexible schedule. Follow the steps below to get started.

01 MAP OUT YOUR PLAN
02 COMPLETE CORE REQUIREMENTS
03 FINISH YOUR DEGREE
7 Days

- Awareness
  - WRAL, UNC TV, WNCN, Raleigh News and Observer, WNCT, Daily Tar Heel, Chapelboro News

- Collaborations
  - NC State, East Carolina, Virginia

- Partnerships

- Inquiries
UNC CORE Next Steps

• Increase academic advising
• Conduct base advisor training
• Accelerate course creation
• Research flexible models
• Invest in outreach and marketing
• Explore degree completion